Medicine Bow National Forest to Host Open House Meetings on Greater Sage-Grouse

(Laramie, WY. - February 3, 2012) – In cooperation with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Wyoming, the Medicine Bow National Forest will host open house meetings in Saratoga and Glenrock.

The purpose of these meetings is to inform the public about greater sage-grouse planning efforts and gather scoping comments related to sage-grouse conservation measures that could be included in a potential revision of the Medicine Bow National Forest Land and Resource Management Plan.

Medicine Bow National Forest officials will be on hand from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the following locations to share information and answer questions related to greater sage-grouse on the Medicine Bow National Forest.

- Feb. 13, 2012 in Saratoga at the Brush Creek-Hayden Ranger District Office, 2171 Highway 130.
- Feb. 16, 2012 in Glenrock at the Town Council Chambers, 219 S. 3rd Street.

For more information about these meetings contact Melissa Martin at the Forest Supervisor's Office in Laramie at (307)745-2371.
